

Ayrshire Community Media CIC

Ayrshire Community Media is a community interest company. They aim to provide access to purpose built and affordable facilities in Ayrshire to meet the needs of small businesses, creative industries sector and new enterprises.

They achieve this by:

- Creating a Community Creative Industries Centre that enables local businesses to access affordable, professional creative services
- Providing access to community training and learning facilities and services that contribute to enhancing local skills
- Promoting the range and depth of new media and language courses across Ayrshire,