

Developing the Social Enterprise Collection Scotland: Upcoming Workshops

GCU Archive Centre

Tuesday 21st January, 11am-12.30pm: An introduction to the Social Enterprise Collection

This workshop is aimed at researchers working in the third sector who would like to know more about the history of social enterprise in Scotland, and how the collection might inform and support the research they do today.

Tuesday 28th January, 9.30am-12.30pm: Offering Material to the Social Enterprise Collection

This workshop is aimed at people who have documents and/or other material that they would like to offer to the Collection. It will provide a general introduction to the Collection, discussion of why your materials are valuable, advice on offering different types of material, and tips on records management.

Both workshops will be hosted at the GCU Archive Centre and provide a sneak peek behind the scenes into the archive holdings
