

SUPPORTING YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS

HOW CAN YOUNG PEOPLE MAKE POSITIVE CONTRIBUTIONS TO THEIR COMMUNITY?

Social enterprise is an ethical model of business that combines the best of entrepreneurship with clear and purposeful social aims. Focusing on social/environmental aims can help young people connect to their communities and respond to the COVID 19 Pandemic in their own creative ways. This online Supporting Community Champions workshop will provide you with ideas for exploring social issues with your young people, supporting them to take positive action within their community and develop essential skills for life, learning and work.
